FEATURED READS

“Boy Underground,” Catherine Ryan Hyde

1941. Steven Katz is the son of prosperous landowners in rural California. Although his parents don't approve, he's found true friends in Nick, Suki, and Ollie, sons of field workers. The group is inseparable. But Steven is in turmoil. He's beginning to acknowledge that his feelings for Nick amount to more than friendship.

When the bombing of Pearl Harbor draws the US into World War II, Suki and his family are forced to leave their home for the internment camp at Manzanar. Ollie enlists in the army and ships out. And Nick must flee. Betrayed by his own father and accused of a crime he didn't commit, he turns to Steven for help. Hiding Nick in a root cellar on his family's farm, Steven acts as Nick's protector and lifeline to the outside world.

As the war escalates, bonds deepen and the fear of being different falls away. But after Nick unexpectedly disappears one day, Steven's life focus is to find him. On the way, Steven finds a place he belongs and a lesson about love that will last him his lifetime.

“The Replacement Wife,” Darby Kane

Elisa Wright is a mom and wife, living a nice, quiet life in a nice, quiet town. She's also convinced her brother-in-law is a murderer. Josh has one dead wife and one missing fiancée, and though he grieved for them he starts dating someone new. Elisa fears for that woman's safety, and she desperately wants to know what happened to her friend, Josh's missing fiancée.

Searching for clues means investigating her own family. And she doesn't like what she finds. A laptop filled with incriminating information. Other women.

But when Elisa becomes friends with Josh's new girlfriend and starts to question things she thinks are true, Elisa wonders if the memories of a horrible incident a year ago have finally pushed her over the edge and Josh is really innocent. With so much at stake, Elisa fights off panic attacks and a strange illness. Is it a breakdown or something more? The race is on to get to the truth before another disappearance because there's a killer in the family... or is there?

LIBRARIAN'S CORNER

By Librarian Valerie Quist

We've got more fun events on the calendar this month at the library.

On Thursday, April 14, the Miss Tracy Royalty will be returning for an Easter-themed Story Time and craft.

On Friday, April 29, we'll be having another family movie night at 6:30 p.m. This month, we'll be showing "Peter Rabbit 2." We'll probably have one more movie night in May, then it's time for Movies in the Park!

Yes, Movies in the Park are returning in 2022. Enquiring minds want to know...what movie would you like us to show in June? Give your family friendly suggestions to me or Jeff Carpenter by the end of April. Please keep in mind, our choices are somewhat limited due to licensing requirements.

Until next month, happy reading!

What I read in March:

"The White Album," Joan Didion

Up next:

The Good Sister," Sally Hepworth

BOOK CLUB BEAT

"The Good Sister," Sally Hepworth

There's only been one time that Rose couldn't stop me from doing the wrong thing and that was a mistake that will haunt me for the rest of my life.

Fern Castle works in her local library. She has dinner with her twin sister Rose three nights a week. And she avoids crowds, bright lights and loud noises as much as possible. Fern has a carefully structured life and disrupting her routine can be...dangerous.

When Rose discovers that she cannot get pregnant, Fern sees her chance to pay her sister back for everything Rose has done for her. Fern can have a baby for Rose. She just needs to find a father. Simple.

Fern's mission will shake the foundations of the life she has carefully built for herself and stir up dark secrets from the past, in this quirky, rich and shocking story of what families keep hidden.

The Tracy Public Library Book Club will meet Thursday, April 21 at 7 p.m.
